

Atla Religion Database® with AtlaSerials®

Quick online access to full-text collections of major religion and theology journals is available through your library.

Produced by Atla, a membership association of collectors and connectors in religion and theology, Atla Religion Database (Atla RDB®) with AtlaSerials (Atlas®) provides coverage from 1949 and retrospective indexing for several journal issues as far back as the nineteenth century.

Journals are selected for inclusion according to their scholarly merit and scope.

Coverage Areas:

- Bible
- Pastoral ministry
- Archaeology and antiquities
- World religions and religious studies
- Human culture and society
- Theology, philosophy and ethics
- Church history, mission and ecumenism
